

Plan Building At Camp AuSable

Plans are being laid for the construction of a craft building and a diving dock at Camp AuSable, the Seventh Day Adventists boys and girls camp at Grayling. The master plan laid several years ago calls for more cabins and a house some time yet in the future. To date, a 100-foot dining hall, four 22-bunk cabins, a shower and a medical building have been erected. Tents will be used again this year to supplement the existing cabins to provide sufficient quarters for the campers and staff. Gifts from Grayling business men and Crawford County residents are being carried on the program of education for the boys and girls of today for better citizens of tomorrow, and carrying on the world-wide "good neighbor" program amounting to $300.00.

The Michigan Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, the Camp AuSable staff, and the local church members wish to express their appreciation for the community's gifts towards the annual project.

The work carried on at Camp AuSable is a good example of what is being carried on in the 146 annual Adventist youth camps none of which are limited to Seventh Day Adventist children.

Stated Elder L. W. Hyde, "But it is expected that all who attend will co-operate with the camp staff and go along with the camp program."

In addition to youth camps, Seventh Day Adventists carry on their "good neighbor" program through local Dorcas Welfare societies, denominational schools, hospitals and publishing houses, as well as their churches.

Explain South Branch Change

The new regulations affecting bait fishing and size limits on the South Branch of the AuSable River have caused confusion in the minds of some fishermen as to the objective sought by the new rules.

The Rosecommon Regional Office of the Department of Conservation, in an attempt to clarify the existing order, advises that the purpose for restricting a portion of the stream to the use of artificial flies only, plus the establishment of a 10-inch minimum size limit, is entirely for experimental purposes. It is hoped that the results of the experiment on this stream will bear out the Department's findings in the North Branch of the AuSable, where a similar experiment has been in effect for several years, which has apparently resulted in improved trout fishing.

The Department wishes to emphasize that the experiment calls for no planting of hatchery fish in the restricted areas during the five year experimental period. It has been rumored in some quarters that planting of legal size fish would be continued. It is the purpose of this article to correct such misinformation. Planting of trout in the restricted area would defeat the purpose of the experiment.

The Regional Office also wishes to point out that Department personnel will take creel census checks at peak fishing periods throughout the length of the stream for the purpose of compiling data upon which to base their conclusions at the expiration of the five years. In the interest of better fishing for everyone, it is hoped that fishermen using the stream will co-operate to the fullest extent by displaying their catches and giving other information to the creel census takers.

Mr. Robert Frank, Rosecommon Regional Office employee, is the department employee assigned to this particular work. He will so identify himself when making contacts on the stream.

The new order, effective May 20, 1952, restricts the stream to a 10-inch size limit from 300 feet below Steckert's bridge to the mouth of the South Branch and further restricts the section from Steckert's Bridge to Smith's Bridge to the use of artificial flies only.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Strong left Wednesday to spend some time in New York State visiting relatives. They were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Trenaman in Flint on route.

Present hopes seem to center around the fact that he will take a passel of votes away from Detroit, where Williams and Alger will be joining for all but the Hamtramck ballot—which is already Williams!

Donald C. Leonard former state police commissioner has decided to take a whack at the gubernatorial chair.

While speculation ran rife as to what his political aspirations were the political observers in the state have been able to keep him on a par with the degree to which he is desired.

Few if any expected the successful police official to put his sights on such a difficult target. He enters the field against such reasoned campaigners as Fred M. Alger, Jr., secretary of the state; Bill Vandenberg, lieutenant-governor; and Eugene Keyes, State-Democrat-lawyer who plays in politics because "he has a fever."

Viking Alumni Urged To Attend Banquet

This is it, Alumni. This is the last week to get your tickets for the banquet. See your class representatives before Saturday, May 24.

We have reservations coming in from all over. One has even come in from Omaha, Nebraska. Isn't that something? We have reports on families who hope to have all their vacationing members present. Wouldn't it be fun to see who has the biggest family present?

The gas situation made some of our out-of-town guests a little uncertain but from all reports the strike is over and the wheels can roll into Grayling.

Let us all get together for a big time and show just what Grayling can do.

Kiwanis Club Notes

Father John A. Breitenstein of St. Mary's Parish was the speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling.

He was introduced by Joseph Stripe who was in charge of the program. Father Breitenstein spoke on the opening of the St. Mary's Parish School. He told the club that the school would open in September with six grades. There will be no kindergarten. The following year the seventh grade will be added and the year after that the eighth grade. After the two upper grades are added, the school will have an enrollment of about 100 students.

Sisters of the Order of St. Joseph's whose center is at Kalamazoo will be the school instructors. The now present parish home will serve them as a convent and Father Breitenstein said he was getting a brand new home, a 38 foot trailer coach.

He told the club members frankly the answers to some of the rumors that have arisen concerning the school and invited them to come over at any time and go through the new church and school building which he said had cost the parish about $50,000. His talk was most interesting and very enlightening and enjoyed by all.

Senior Trip Starts Friday

The 1952 Senior Class of Grayling High School leave for their annual Senior Trip at 4 a. m. Friday morning. They go by bus to Chicago, Illinois and will stay at the Sherman Hotel.

They are scheduled to arrive in Chicago shortly after noon Friday. On Saturday morning at 9 a. m. the group of Viking Seniors will leave the hotel aboard sight-seeing buses. The tour will be made over Chicago's South Side passing the Gold Coast District of the 1890's through the colored belt of the city and Washington Park, the University of Chicago campus, Jackson Park and a stop at the Museum of Science and Industry. Luncheon will be served at this point. The tour will then continue through the Hyde Park residential section and along Lake Shore Drive to Grant Park where a stop will be made at the Shedd Aquarium and the Chicago Museum of Natural History.

Following this stop the tour will continue through Grant Park passing the mouth of the Chicago River and the locks located at this point, passing Navy Pier, the Gold Coast section of Lake Shore Drive and the Loop district and returning to the Sherman Hotel for dinner.

Following dinner, the seniors will depart again on a tour by night of Chicago's Chinatown, past Hull House, through Maxwell Street Market, passing Mrs. O'Leary's house the point of origin of the great Chicago Fire and many other interesting points. The group will then return to the hotel for the night and following breakfast and a free Sunday morning, the tour will start for Grayling at 1 p. m. The seniors are expected back in Grayling about 8:30 Sunday night.

The Parks and Recreation Division of the Michigan Conservation Department has requested two of the 3,000 foot long steel sided toboggan slides from the Grayling Winter Sports Park to be given to the United States Park Service for installation at Silver Valley Winter Sports Area near East Tawas.

The request has been granted by the Grayling Winter Sports Park, Inc. in that it was felt that there wasn't a need for all six at the Grayling area. The local governing body, however, requested that it be contacted when removal proceedings were started in order that it might designate which two of the slides were to be removed.

During the past two seasons, the Grayling Park has maintained four slides and ready for use, but has only used two at a time. The two not in use have been kept covered with snow in order to save the ice from melting. If more than two were ever needed or if the two in use began to melt out, the other two held in reserve could always be quickly uncovered for tobogganing runs.

Revised Plan For Expansion Of Camp Grayling Accepted

A revised master plan for the progressive expansion of Camp Grayling was accepted by the State Military Board early last month.

Major difference between the revised master plan and the plan adopted approximately three years ago is the elimination of the new housing area planned for construction on the plateau south of the present camp site. Under the revised plan existing areas will be expanded into adjacent land in order to provide increased housing facilities.

Principal reason for revising the expansion plan was the major cost of preparing an entirely new housing area away from present facilities according to Maj. Versel Case, Jr., of the Quartermaster General's Office. It was estimated that nearly a million dollars would be required for only the preliminary work on the new housing area. Additional large sums subsequently would be required for the construction of necessary buildings and roads.

Present and expected allotments of funds, both state and federal, were considered in the revision of the master plan for Camp Grayling. No date has been set for the accomplishment of the revised plan. Construction will proceed on a yearly basis in accordance with annual allotments of funds.

Under the revised plan housing facilities of the main camp would be expanded into these areas: (1) south of that presently occupied by the 425th Inf. Regt. (2) south of the present post exchange, and (3) north of the area presently occupied by special troops units.

As the new areas are constructed and occupied some revision of camp area assignments probably would be effected.

The long range master plan also calls for the elimination of practically all present frame-type messhalls. In their place would

Deflation, World Picture

"Night club owners in Sydney, Australia, are grumbling these days—because the price of wool has dropped 50 per cent in 12 months," said a feature news story in a recent issue of the authoritative Wall Street Journal.

"In equatorial Singapore, a pound of rubber worth 80 cents last spring now sells at 36 cents. Southeast of London a five-room house price tagged at $5,600 just four months ago is now offered at $4,482. In Chicago, a hundred pounds of hog worth $21.50 twelve months back now brings only $17.50."

Such developments as these, the story went on, are symptoms of world price deflation. More and more of them are appearing. And the point is that many an economist is coming to believe that deflation, rather than more inflation, may be the greatest world economic problem. This view was expressed by Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer, Richard Butler, when he told Commons, "There is more danger of deflation and the possibility of unemployment in the world in general than some of the lively economic critics outside this house imagine."

According to the Wall Street Journal roundup, several factors seem to be responsible for the reversal of the price trend. First, world production of physical goods is very high. Second, the outbreak of the Korean war started scare buying on a global scale and sent many prices clear out of line. Third, extremely stiff taxes are cutting deeply into the buying power of the people in this country and abroad. Our per capita taxes are over five times as great as in 1938, and other nations are in a comparable fix.

Some of the breaks in prices cited by the Journal are very great. For instance copper reached 60 cents a pound in world markets after the Korean war started—now it is down to 40 cents and less. Wool slumped from a high of $3.80 to $1.55. Cotton-touched 46 cents, then slid back to under 42.

Don Leonard Announces His Candidacy For G. O. P. Governor Nod

Don S. Leonard, Commissioner of the Michigan State Police, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Governor of Michigan.

Simultaneously, circulation of petitions started in all Counties of the State.

Mr. Leonard's statement follows.

"Many citizens throughout the State have convinced me that my long years of experience in administrative work in State Government is needed to restore old-fashioned common sense in the Governor's office. I believe the great majority of the people of Michigan are dissatisfied with the stalemate in Government that is wrecking the State economy. Only a Republican Governor and a Republican Legislature working in complete harmony can restore to the people the kind of Government that gets things done."

"There are many problems in State Government which I intend to discuss from time to time during the campaign. But a good example of the evils growing out of the present stalemate is our finances."

"Pressure group control in the Governor's office has been mainly responsible for failure of all attempts to restore the State's financial balance. Our financial difficulties have grown progressively worse while the Governor has been bickering with the lawmakers."

"In planning our financial program, we should remember we are not drawing upon inexhaustible sources. I believe that we ought to cut the cloth to fit the coat. This does not mean ill-considered slashing of expenditures, but rather it should mean judicious spending. We can weaken Government at any level by continuous waste and inefficiency. We can weaken it as well by unwise or arbitrary curtailment."

"In the many years I have served the people of this State as Commissioner of Police, State Fuel Administrator, and State Director of Civil Defense, I have frequently visited just about every community on official business. In the remotest sections of the State as in the more densely populated areas. This was particularly true during those periods when I was serving as Fuel Administrator in the coal and fuel oil emergencies, first during World War II and later in two strike periods.

"In presenting my name for the Republican nomination for Governor, I am acting in the firm belief that, if successful in the primaries, I would be a candidate on whom all factions in the party may unite in the General Election."

Donald S. Leonard was born in Detroit on June 23, 1903. Although he is still a year away from the half century mark in age, he has just completed 29 years of service in the Michigan State Police, the last five of which he served as commissioner.

Leonard rose through the ranks, having joined as a trooper in 1923. He was frequently called upon to serve in high administrative posts during public emergencies.

After graduating from Detroit public schools and Northern High, he worked his way through Wayne University, getting a law degree and following that by post graduate studies at the University of Michigan. He specialized in law procedure, constitutional law and jurisprudence and was early admitted to practice before both the United States and Michigan Supreme Courts.

Leonard's widely recognized administrative abilities put him in the national picture years ago. Following sit-down strikes in

KNOW THESE FACTS ABOUT T. B.

"Know these facts!"
Hopeful for a high chest X-ray total in the planned five-county chest X-ray campaign beginning May 27, area health department officials this week stressed the following as "facts everyone should know and understand about tuberculosis."

1. Tuberculosis is caused by a germ.
2. Tuberculosis is "catching."
3. You can't inherit tuberculosis from your parents.

4. You can have tuberculosis without feeling sick.

5. The doctor can tell whether or not you have tuberculosis by X-rays and other tests.

6. Tuberculosis usually can be cured if found early enough and treated properly.

7. The tuberculosis hospital is the best place to go to be treated and to protect others from your germs.

Offering free chest X-rays to all residents 15 years of age and older the Michigan Department of Health mobile chest X-ray unit will be in Cadillac May 27 to June 3; in Mesick on June 4; in Kalkaska on June 5 & 6; in Grayling on June 9 and 10; in Roscommon on June 11 and 12; in Houghton Lake on June 13; in Lake City on June 17; in Manton June 18 and 19 and in McBain on June 20. Dr. C. E. Merritt, Director, District Health Department No. 1, said the X-ray survey is being planned as a "convenient public health service" for the five-county area.

In cooperation with the Medical Society, Michigan Tuberculosis Association and other local groups, he said the health department is counting on a large turn-out of adults when the Michigan Department of Health mobile X-ray unit arrives.

While most people X-rayed will have healthy chests, when tuberculosis is found in early stages, cure is more certain and the disease has had less time to spread to others, Dr. Merritt added.

large motor plants. Leonard was placed in protective charge of plants in Dearborn, Highland Park, Detroit and Hamtramck by the then Gov. Frank Murphy, after evacuation of the employees. His administration of relations involving workers resulted in his being chosen mediator, approved by both labor and management. He was cited in 1941 by the CIO for excellent service in this capacity.

Your Milk

The Conservation Department has restored bird and animal life and has our county looking nice and green again. They gave us the "go ahead" sign. Tourist and fishermen came in great numbers to our lakes and streams. Cottages have been built wherever there is suitable shade or water.

The income from the tourist trade is greater than any other in our county. We owe it to ourselves to give these visitors good and courteous treatment. We must not forget the Golden Rule. The only way to have a friend is to be a friend.

To produce good milk or a good tourist trade does not come by accident. It is the fruits of years of experience and know how and last but not least . . . hard work.

If you have not already tried this milk . . . won't you do so? Sold by Hunter's Ausable Dairy.

Cakes lined up—each with a number. Judges looking, breaking off pieces, tasting. The winner? Number 4—a cake with a wonderful, glossy chocolate frosting.

This was at the Women's Club last night. Then Duke Thomas stepped up—his cake was Number 4! Seems his missus was laid up, so Duke took over—and won!

Here's Duke's prize-winning frosting recipe:

Melt 3 square unflavored chocolate in double boiler. Remove from heat, add 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioner's sugar and 1/4 lb. hot water and blend. Add 1 egg yolk, one at a time, beating well after each. Add

4 lbs. butter, beating thoroughly after each. Fill and freeze 4-inch, 2-layer cake.

From where I sit, we all have different abilities and tastes... and these differences are sometimes surprising. Duke bakes prize-winning cakes. My wife, for example, can beat most any man at checkers. Same when it comes to beverages—you may like coffee or tea while I prefer a refreshing glass of beer. But let's not have any "half-baked" ideas that people are all the same—or should be.

MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

FIRE AND FLOOD

While Michigan residents battle the Great Lakes shoreline battle the ever-increasing threat of flood, natives of our vast lake pine sections in the north have had the driest spring in years with extremely high fire hazard.

More land has been burned over so far this year than during the entire twelve months of 1951! Yet the loss per acre is amazingly low thanks to the efficiency of our Conservation Department in forest fire control.

Rural Network Alert

During conditions of "high hazard"—after a prolonged dry spell, with low humidity, high temperatures and a fresh breeze—the entire field organization of the department is on its toes, with crack teams trained in fire detection. Once fire breaks out other squads schooled in controlling the spread of flame get there fast. Well-directed manpower combined with modern forest fire-fighting machinery keep the loss per acre 'way down. Up thru the first week in May 298 fires burned a total of 1250 acres. That's less than 5 acres per fire! With tinder-dry conditions and any kind of a wind blowing fire can destroy 5 acres in a hurry. Every second counts, and the first wisp of smoke throws the entire organization into gear.

Radio Network Active

Radio communication is the most important single factor in the system. The Department has more than 350 radio transmitters in its network in which are included 160 fire towers, 130 Conservation Officer cars, and miscellaneous back-pack sets and mobile units. Fire towers spot the first curl of smoke, take a compass bearing, radio another tower within range of the fire, and thru coordination of their readings they pinpoint the blaze on a map.

Tractors, plows and power wagons are dispatched to the scene with adequate manpower. Overhead, a department plane may circle reporting the progress of the flames, directing the equipment to the most strategic spot, and pointing out the quickest route to remote sections.

Radio central at regional or district headquarters crackles constantly with terse directives. Huge wall maps are studded with squares of paper carrying the up-to-the-minute history of each fire where and when it started, what manpower and equipment is on the job, estimated cause, time it is brought under control, and acreage burned.

Impressive Results
The efficiency of the system is nothing short of spectacular to watch in action. And the results speak for themselves! Hats off to our Conservation Department for a job well done—the job of standing guard against fire everywhere in Michigan. Outdoors!

Mont Hall's "Michigan Outdoors" television show may be seen every Thursday at 10:15 p.m. on stations WWJ-TV, Detroit and WJIM-TV, Lansing.

Camp Grayling Expansion

be constructed new masonry-type buildings, 40' x 80' in size, and capable of handling 150 men. Each company-size unit would have its own cinder block bathhouse.

A basic consideration in the development of the revised master plan was the provision for an 80-foot wide company area. Each new concrete messhall would be 40 feet wide. The squad tents to be erected over concrete tent floors directly behind the messhall would take up an area approximately 40 feet wide, thus leaving a 40-foot wide company street.

Grayling Fire Department News

The weekly meeting of May 19 was slightly different than our other meetings. With a make believe fire at Walter LaMotte's home, the department rushed over and hooked up to a fire hydrant with a double hook-up to the big fire truck using the small truck at the fire hydrant pushing water to the big truck. This was done by hooking the small truck and pumps to the hydrant and then running two 2 1/2" lines from the little truck to the big truck.

The main reason for this make believe fire was to see just how long it would take us to hook up to the fire hydrant, run a double hook up to the big truck and then have water coming out of the five lines—a 2 1/2" line, two 1 1/4" lines and two 1" lines. From the time we drove up to the fire hydrant until water was coming out of all five lines, just 5 1/2 minutes had elapsed.

We then tested all of these hoses by putting 135 lbs. pressure on them. Two lengths of hose were broken. In all we tested 12-2 1/2" hoses and 4 1 1/4" hoses.

When this was finished, we rolled up the hose, went back to the fire hall hung up all of our wet hose to dry, and reloaded both trucks with dry hose.

We then put couplings on 4 new lengths of hose and repaired two lengths of hose which were broken in the pressure test.

Fifteen members were present at this meeting. Meeting was adjourned at 9:15 P. M. Les Goss.

Expect Record Field In Alpena Canoe Race

The Midwestern Championship and $1,000.00 in prize money have spurred early entries from widely scattered points in five states and Canada indicating a record field in the 4th annual running of the Thunder Bay-Midwest Canoe Championships scheduled on July 4th.

Last year the colorful event drew 60 of the outstanding canoeists of the North American continent and established the Thunder Bay dash as a top favorite with the rugged paddlers. The 1951 champions, Harlow Thompson and Richard Peck of Deer River, Minnesota will return to the fray this year in an effort to better their time of 6 hours and 18 minutes for the 50 mile course.

While strong Minnesota teams have dominated the field in the past two years, race officials look for real competitive threats from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Ontario and Quebec in the forthcoming grind. Ted Engle, Jr. of Gaylord and Jay Stephan of Grayling, AuSable Race winners last year, are expected to carry Michigan's colors over the tough Thunder Bay course.

In 1951 some 13 thousand sodden spectators braved a day long drizzle to follow the canoeists from the time the starting gun cracked at 10:00 A. M., in the up river village of Hillman to early evening when the last canoe nosed over the finish line in down town Alpena.

Sponsored jointly by the Alpena and Hillman Chamber of Commerce, the race is open to men 16 years of age and over. Deadline for entries has been set for 6:00 P. M., Tuesday, July 1st. All requests for information should be addressed to the Alpena Chamber of Commerce and entries must be accompanied by a $5.00 fee for each two man team.
